WHERE TO BEGIN

Lead Follow-up Audit

USD 497 · one-time payment before work begins. We review one inquiry-to-next-step process in one service business, in English or Spanish.

Listen and review

Up to 20 de-identified inquiries from the last 30 days. A 60-minute diagnostic and a 30-minute handoff, scheduled subject to availability.

Deliver clarity

A current and proposed process map, evidence separated from hypotheses, up to three prioritized gaps, three reusable follow-up messages, one accountable owner with an SOP, and a 30-day action plan.

Agree on the next step

Written report within 48 business hours after the diagnostic and receipt of complete evidence. One consolidated correction round within five business days and an asynchronous day-seven review, capped at 15 minutes.

The audit does not include implementation, custom code, software licenses or full marketing management. Implementation is scoped separately with defined deliverables, responsibilities and prerequisites. Leads, appointments and revenue are not guaranteed.

CONVERSACIÓN / CONVERSATION

Start with your context

Tell us where you are and what you need to solve. An inquiry helps assess fit and prepare a scope; it does not confirm an engagement or appointment.

1. Share your situation

Complete the AiLatina inquiry form or write to the business contact.

2. Define the right path

We confirm the appropriate offer, deliverables, responsibilities and terms before work begins.

3. Measure what happens

We distinguish setup, execution and evidence. Provider acceptance does not mean an email was received or read.
